1. Over the years the Agency has participated in various public service awards programs and a pamphlet describing each award in detail with a list of the latest winners is attached. In this connection, it is requested that you study the purpose and criteria of the awards listed above and nominate qualified employees who deserve recognition for their accomplishments.

2. You may submit more than one name for an award. Please send me your list of nominations on or before 11 May 1973. This Office will then compile a list of all nominations submitted and forward it to the Director for final decision. Actions will be based on your submissions at this time and the Director's approval of nominations. If any of your nominees are approved by the Director, your assistance in developing the nominating documents will be requested when the appropriate announcement is received.

3. While we would not ask the Director to endorse a candidate who is not fully qualified and deserving of these awards, I do urge you to screen your employees carefully so that no qualified nominee is overlooked. Recipients of Honor and Merit Awards may also qualify for public recognition.

4. If you require any further information or assistance in identifying eligible nominees. please contact me.

Subject: President's Award for Distinguished Federal Civilian Service

From: Richard P. Brengel, Director
Office of Incentive Systems

To: Department and Agency Incentive Awards Administrators

Recently we learned that the recommendations for the President's Award made by the Distinguished Civilian Service Awards Board have been approved and that a White House ceremony will likely be held late January.

Agency heads will be notified of the selections by Presidential letter in the near future.

We will provide information concerning the awardees and the plans for the ceremony as soon as it can be made available.
